

THE COLLEGE NETWORK FACT SHEET

Since 1992, The College Network, Inc. has provided working adults with educational solutions from leading universities to help them earn associate's degrees, bachelor's degrees, master's degrees, and professional certificates. Utilizing a blended learning format that includes college equivalency testing, written coursework, and online studies, learners complete their programs through accredited universities without attending any classes on campus.

PARTNERS

The College Network's partner universities include:

Angelo State University, Bellevue University, Indiana State University, Indiana University, Regis University, The George Washington University, the University of Southern California, Boston University, and eCornell (a subsidiary of Cornell University) among others.

Degrees and certificates are awarded from The College Network's partner universities in many fields, including health care, nursing, information management, project management, business, executive leadership, financial management, human resources, hospitality, foodservice management, and many more.

CUSTOMERS

The College Network caters to working professionals by offering accessible educational opportunities. Learners are supported by trained academic advisors available Monday through Friday, 15 hours a day. To date, more than 150,000 individuals have worked toward their educational goals with the help of The College Network. The structure of The College Network's programs, starting with online Comprehensive Learning Module materials and evolving into online coursework with The College Network's university partners, affords working adults a less stressful reentry into professional, undergraduate, and graduate education.

UNIQUE SERVICE

Upon purchasing The College Network's program, required transcripts are obtained from all universities attended by the learner. A thorough course analysis is conducted to determine the individualized curriculum required for successful program completion. The College Network's program includes self-contained, college-level Comprehensive Learning Modules, available in an online format, along with comprehensive academic support for all educational offerings. To ensure top-quality products, The College Network's Comprehensive Learning Modules are written by nationally recognized professors from highly acclaimed colleges and universities as ranked by U.S. News and World Report.

The College Network's Comprehensive Learning Modules prepare learners to take credit-by-examination exams to earn college credit for the required prerequisite and general education courses. After thorough study using The College Network's materials, learners can take the appropriate CLEP[®], DSST[®], or Excelsior College[®] Examinations. Credits earned by examination are accepted by The College Network's partner universities as well as at thousands of colleges and universities nationwide.

The College Network has a strong success guarantee for its portion of the degree program. The guarantee supports the learner's goal of passing the exams. If, after two attempts, the learner is unable to pass an exam, The College Network will pay for a local tutor and subsequent testing fees until he or she passes. In addition, guaranteed financing is available for The College Network's portion of the program.

CONTACTS: Cory Eyler, Vice President of Marketing, The College Network, Inc. 317.566.2542